TO THE RISING SUN. See! how with thundering fiery feet Sol's ardent steeds the barriers beat, That bar their radient way : Yoked by the circling hours they stand, To bear the car of day.

Replete with sevenfold fire; While, dazzled by his conquering light, Heaven's glittering host and awful night Submissively retire.

See! clothed with majesty and strength, Through sacred light's wide gate at length The god exciting spring: While lesser drities around, And demon powers his praise resound, And hail their matchless king!

Through the dark portals of the deep

And thunder up the sky.

The god to strains now turns his lyre, Which nature's harmony inspire, And ravish as they fly. And boils with rage no more;

The World's dark boundary Tart'rus hears, And stills its wild uproar. And while through heaven the god sublime Fast by his chariot run:

And hymns his parent Sun. See! as he comes, with general voice All Nature's living tribes rejoice,

And own him as their king. Ev'n rugged rocks their heads advance, $7 00 And forests on the mountains dance. And hills and valleys sing. See! while the beauteous glittering feet In mystic measures either beat;

Enchanting to the sight,

Life-bearing health, ambrosial dews, Exulting springs to light. Lo! as he comes, in Heaven's array, Lifts high his scourge of fire, Fierce demons that in darkness dwells,

Foes of our race, and dogs of Hell,

Dread its avenging ire. Hail! crowned with light, creation's king? Be mine the task thy praise to sing, And vindicate thy might Thy honors spread through barb'rous climes Ages unborn, and impious times, And realms involved in night.

Affection, when coupled with honor and wisdom, seems ever to grow vigorous, and to entail upon its votaries, hours of peace and glorious reflection. It issues quietly forth, from among a group of fellow-beings, as the modest inheritor of Fame walks within the busy marts of a stranger land. The roads and by-ways of life are frequently spread with emblems of its nature, which impart loveliness and joy to the human soul; illumining heavy hearts with hope and comfort, and discharging from our being, fears that have for a long time, perhaps, seemed fixed within us, because of our wickedness and sin. The starry heavens, so beautiful to behold, have often led the ladened wanderer to a haven of safety and bliss, where affection and friendship calmly dwell. What, too, bestows upon woman a profusion of sacred, innocent, and lasting benefits, or seems to correct the mighty evils which the lack of a companion, the want of a tender heart, or the absence of a virtuous mind, inevitably create, but affection. Without it, life would be tainted with merciless acts, and the vast field whereon so many now reap a harvest of pleasure and delight, would be barren of joys or objects pure.

If frozen meat is brought into a warm room, and thawed by heat-if you have not good teeth and the digestive powers of an ostrich, you had best leave that part of the dinner for those who have. Therefore, bring from the larder, the night before it is wanted, the meat or poultry intended for dinner, and plunge it into cold water. The next morning, a thick coating of ice will be found encrusting the whole piece. Take it off and change the water, and let it remain until the hour for dressing. If to be boiled put it over the fire in cold water-if for a roast, put it not before too brisk a fire, as there is always danger that the heart of a large piece may not be completely thawed, in which case

DR. TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA!
Wonder and blessing of the Age!
THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD. This Extract is put up in quart bottles; it is six times cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted superior to any sold. It cures without romiting, purging, sickening or debilitating the patient.

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla

SPRING & SUMMER MEDICINES ever known; it not only purifies the whole system, and rengthens the person, but it creates new, pure and ch blood a power possessed by no other medicine. And in this lies the grand secret of its wonderful success has performed within the last five years more than 100,000 cures of severe cases of disease; at least 15,000 were considered incurable. It has saved the lives of nore than 5,000 children during the two past seasons. 10,000 cases of general debility and want of nerous energy. Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla invigorates he whole system permanently. To those who have lost eir muscular energy by the effects of medicine or indiscretion committed in youth, or the excessive indulgence of the passions, and brought on a general physical prostration of the nervous system, want of ambition, fainting sensations, premature decay and decline, bas-

New- York, April 28, 1847. Dr. Townsend-I verily believe that your Sursaparilla has been the means, through Providence, of saving my life. I have for several years had a bad cough. It became worse and worse. At last I raised large quanties of blood, had night sweats, and was greatly debilitated and reduced, and did not expect to live. I have only to receive horses at livery, by the day, week, or used your Sarsaparilla a short time, and there has a wonderful change been wrought in me. I am now able to walk all over the city. I raise no blood, and my cough has left me. You can well imagine that I am thankful for these results. Your obedient servant, W.M. RUSSELL, 65 Catherine-s*.

I done me more than one thousand dollars worth of good.

I am so much better—indeed, I am entirely relieved. You are at liberty to use this for the benealt of the afficed. Yours, respectfully, JAS, CUMMINGS.
Fits! Fits! Fits! Dr. Townsend, not having sted his Sarsaparilla in case of Fits, of course never commended it, and was surprised to receive the following from an intelligent and respectable Farmer in Weschester county: Fordham, August 13, 1847. Dr. Townsend: Dear Sir-1 have a little girl seven years of age, who has been several years afflicted with Fits: we tried almost every thing for her, but without success; at last, although we could find no recommendation in our circulars for cases like hers, we thought, as she was in very delicate health, we would give her some of your Sarsaparilla, and are very glad we did, for it not is a sovereign and speedy care for lacipent.
